Ticket Types and Features

For a period of time after new Lottery Terminals launch, there will be two types of Scratch & Win Tickets in market and it is important to understand the differences in order for you to effectively manage your Scratch & Win business.

Traditional Tickets

The term “Traditional Tickets” refers to the type of Scratch & Win Tickets that have been available in the market prior to the launch of the new Lottery Terminals.

Traditional Tickets:

- Remain unchanged
- Remain available until sold through at BCLC
- Maintain 28-days payment terms
- The longest expected duration of a Traditional Ticket in market is National Ticket $30 Platinum (Game #103242).

This is expected to be actively selling until mid November 2025. Expiry Nov 27, 2026.

Activation Tickets

The term “Activation Tickets” refers to the type of Scratch & Win Tickets that will launch after new Lottery Terminals and include enhance capabilities to support new terminal functionality such as Ticket Activation, inventory reporting and next-invoice Payment Terms.

Activation Tickets are:

- Specifically assigned to the Retailer ID
- ‘Inactive’ upon delivery to your location. ‘Sale and check’ capabilities must be activated by the Retailer.
- If not activated, Ticket results cannot be checked for prize redemption
- Integrated with Lottery sales and inventory reporting
